CIRCULAR

Ministry of Home Affairs, Govt. of India, New Delhi has launched nationwide unified Emergency Response Support System (ERSS) with a single emergency number ‘112’, for all kinds of emergencies and distress call from across the country.

ERSS is designed to address distress signals from citizens in the form of voice call, SMS, panic SOS request, web request etc. All these distress signals are sent to the common number ‘112’.

Henceforth all the existing emergency numbers like 100(Police), 101 (Fire and Rescue) and 108 (Ambulance), 181 (Women and Child Care) etc., will be integrated to an unified number ‘112’.

It is therefore enjoined upon all the Heads of the Institutions of Govt./Govt. aided/unaided schools to bring content of the above circular to all the students and staff to use single emergency number ‘112’ for all kind of emergencies.
