CIRCULAR

Several cases of the staff appointed in Private Unaided Schools have been reported wherein the appointed staff quit the service without giving appropriate notice as required under Rule 74 and the school managements approach this Directorate for clarification.

It is therefore enjoined upon the Managements of all Un-aided Private Schools and employees thereof that the provisions of recruitment and promotion as laid down in the Rule 74 regarding notice period in case of resignation inter alia and the minimum qualifications for appointment as laid down in Rule 78 be followed, failing which action deemed fit shall be initiated against management or employees as the case may be.
