CIRCULAR

Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU) has developed a very innovative and life-skill certificate programme called ‘Certificate Programme in Value Education’ (CPVE). Minimum qualification to pursue this programme is 10+2. And this program can be completed in minimum six months and maximum 2 years. The total course fee is Rs. 1000/- only.

This programme is extremely useful for all in general and for teachers and anganwadi workers in particular. There is a sizable number of students enrolled for this programme from all over the country which includes 10+2 pass outs, teachers and other state government employees. The response shows that there is a widespread attraction for ‘Value Education’ among the teaching community.

It is therefore enjoined upon all the Heads of the Institutions of Primary/secondary & higher secondary schools to bring content of this circular among their staff regarding usefulness of this programme. It is essential for teachers, educators, anganwadi workers as well as 10+2 pass-outs planning to pursue teaching as career and value ethics in their day to day life.
